Minutes of the meeting:

1. The landmark MoU signed between Partners Medical International (Harvard) and SBV on March 19th, 2016. This MoU was signed to enhance the academics, teaching-learning-assessment and administration aspects of SBV.
2. In this regard A series of FDP was conducted by the resource persons of PMI for all faculty across disciplines. The FDPs happened between April 2nd week to last week. Topics included Education Reforms, Vision Mission, Planning a Project, Instructional Design and the Roles of Faculty. The faculty of SBV participated enthusiastically. The Vice Chancellor expressed that this is a constructive start towards overcoming the weaknesses of SBV as mentioned in the last NAAC.
3. The IQAC coordinator reported quality program done in February and March. The topic included - Rockefeller habits, Choice Based Credit Grading System, Goal Setting- Benchmarking and perspective planning. He also highlighted the National program done in Chronobiology and Health, the Quality initiative in Competency Based Medical Education for PG training, by MEU in association with IQAC. The members appreciated the programs done by IQAC specifically on quality.
4. The Dean Research and Allied Health Sciences informed the floor that Choice Based Credit System has been approved by the Academic Council to be implemented in

U/S 3 UGC ACT 1956

Allied health sciences programs. The Vice-Chancellor appreciated the quick strides SBV is making towards rectifying the areas of concerns reported in the last NAAC.

5. The members also proposed that SBV must associate with the numerous initiatives of Inflibnet, such as Shodhganga and Shodhgangotri. IQAC coordinator and Dr. Jagan were asked to follow-up the same.
6. The Vice-Chancellor expressed that the departments/ institutions must be appreciated for the prompt and timely submission of the quarterly review meetings; an award for process and performance/ efficiency/ efficacy awards. IQAC shall come out with the evaluation parameters soon.
7. The IQAC coordinator thanked one and all and promised that IQAC will continue to strive to bring in quality in all aspects of SBV, with the support of the Chair and the members.
